Meet the Instructor Deena Rizkalla

Meet the Instructor: Dara Drum

Deena Rizkalla is an enthusiastic educator and performer who looks to bridge cultural gaps and forge friendships with different styles of music. Participating in school orchestras from an early age inspired her to go on to become a music educator herself, and graduated with a Bachelor's in Music Education from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro. During college, Deena was introduced to playing other styles of music such as Old Time and jazz, and became fascinated by how different cultures interacted with music. After graduating, she stayed local and began teaching strings in Title I schools.

Dara Drum has received her bachelor's degree in Choral Education from Liberty University with an official teaching license for the state of Virginia. She has also participated in local music productions, collegiate level opera productions and local church music events. She currently serves as a ministry assistant in music and worship department at her home church, Immanuel Bible Church. Ms. Drum is also an alumna of Immanuel Christian School for all of Elementary & Middle School Career.
